On behalf of the 4WD Industry Council, we invite you to join fellow 4WD & AAAA members for an industry networking breakfast prior to the opening of the National 4x4 & Outdoors Show Melbourne 2019.

This year, we are very fortunate to have Kylea Tink, CEO of Camp Quality, joining us to provide an introduction to FunX4, a relatively new 4WD adventure fund-raising event helping to support kids undergoing treatment for cancer. The 4WD Industry Council is pleased to support this fantastic initiative. 'FUNx4 is where 4WD enthusiasts meet fundraising! Participants experience some of the best 4WD terrain, make new friends and most importantly, give kids facing cancer the chance to be kids again.'

Luke Truskinger from the Auto Innovation Centre (AIC) will then provide an update on the launch of the ground-breaking new AIC facility, and some of the testing and certification services that will play a vital role for the 4WD aftermarket accessories industry.

As always, it's not all about the speakers - this is your chance to participate in the conversation and help shape the future of our industry.

You are more than welcome to invite your 4WD industry colleagues along to this breakfast. In fact, non-members who attend the breakfast and sign up to the 4WD Industry Council on the day will receive a $20 discount on their membership as a welcome to the association. For further information on this event, please contact Nigel Bishop on 0499 001 920.
