Coronavirus (COVID-19) Test Isolation

and Worker Support Payments

As at 05 August 2020

There is some concern that employees that may have exhausted their sick leave entitlements may be reporting to work. It is important that every employee stays home if they are unwell as a result, the Victorian Government is providing one-off payments of $1500 to financially support Victorian workers, including parents and guardians, who are required to self-isolate or quarantine due to coronavirus (COVID-19).
